

Restorative Practices: Training for Educators, Support Staff, & School Administrators

Introduction to Restorative Practices

1.5 hours - PD for your school.

- *Fundamental theory and practices.
- *Set high expectations and supports for your students.
- *Foster accountability and resolve conflicts.
- *Circles for a positive learning environment and school culture.
- *Building relationships, community, and belonging.
- *Provide Restorative Practices to use SEL skills and competencies.

Restorative Practices for Educators

If Restorative Practices are:

- *Important to your school and classroom mission.
- *You have taken the introductory course.
- *Seeking RP certification.
- *You would like to learn more about positive behavior management strategies for your classroom/school that foster interest, learning, community, empathy, problem solving, and belonging.
- *Deep dive into RP theory and practices.
- *Implementation in the classroom and become a leader within your school.
- *Give your students real-time experience and practice using their SEL skills.

Take this class:

Restorative Practices for Educators

4 hour class - 2 sessions

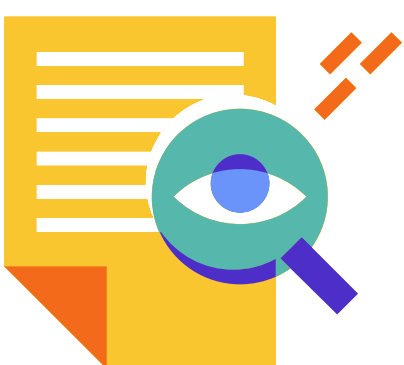

You will create a plan and have the tools to:

- *Effectively build community and belonging.
- *Proactive behavior management. Shame reducing practices.
- *Classroom and school behavior code agreements and how to uphold them.
- *Create belonging, understanding, kindness, and empathy.
- *Promote problem solving, hope, self-agency.
- *Techniques to nurture self-discipline and self-regulation.
- *Create programs for your classroom and school.
- *Facilitating circles for adults and children.
- *Intentional classroom engagement.

Volunteer with us:

Personal mentoring, experience, and coaching conducting Peer Mediation, Restorative Practice Conferences, Circles for healing, problem solving, discussion.

Certification in Restorative Practices is earned after completing both classes and 15 mentored volunteer hours in Restorative Practices.